More Oratory On Building Ashland

Willis Wants to Know Why Delay? No Turkey Trotting Later Than "I G. M."

The city council went on record Monday night for advocating reforms, and regulating various evils said to be in existence within the boundaries of the city's corporate limits.

A dancing ordinance is forthcoming, which will cut the Sunday night soirees and close the lid on Saturday night "raggers" at one o'clock sharp. It was quietly intimated that many of the dancing parties were conducted in close proximity to liquor stores.

Willis made a few pointed remarks in regard to the dilatory manner in which Ashland avenue was being improved. He claimed that three years had been spent in getting started on this work, and that nothing had been done. The street car company and the Santa Fe came in for some criticism, the former company being accused of "stalling" on the job. Willis claimed that there were too many delays and that he wanted to see the work finished.

The first issue of the Richmond Improvement bonds were sold by the council to E. H. Rollins & Sons of San Francisco. There was only one bid submitted, that of the above named buyers, and a premium of $243 for the $300,000 issue, accompanied by a certified check for $6000 was accepted.

A permit was granted E. A. Preble to erect a livery stable on B street between Barrett and Nevin.

Fire Co. No. 6 made a request for 500 feet of hose. Referred to fire committee.

Police Judge Lindsey reported $600 collected in fines for January.

On motion of Dooling, the city clerk was ordered to prepare the necessary plans and specifications for the opening of Fifth st.

The contending parties in regard to the grades for Santa Fe and Nicholl avenue have finally arrived at a settlement.

J. T. Narbett submitted a communication in regard to the conflict of two sections of the building ordinances relative to the filing of plans. Referred.

Monthly reports of the city officers were received and placed on file.

The city attorney was directed to notify the Southern Pacific to remove poles from Washington and Richmond avenues and also install guard rails on Richmond avenue.

A committee meeting was called for this (Friday) evening by the mayor to meet in the council chamber at 7:30.

The following claims were ordered paid:

Goodfellow, Ellis & Orrick	exam. bonds, etc.	$1170.00
Daily Independent, job pte		117.75
Record-Herald, pub.		104.00

Civil Service Examination.

An examination for CLERK and CARRIER will be held at the postoffice in this city on March 8, 1913. Age limit 18 to 45 years, on the date of the examination. Married women will not be admitted to the examination. This prohibition, however, does not apply to women who are divorced or those who are separated from their husbands and support themselves, but they are eligible for appointment only as clerk.

Applicants must be physically sound, and male applicants must be not less than 5 feet 4 inches in height without boots or shoes, and weigh not less than 125 pounds without overcoat or hat.

For application blanks and for full information relative to the examination, qualifications, duties, salaries, vacations, promotions, etc., address immediately Miss Ivy E. ROBERTSON, Sec. Board of Civil Service Examiners, Postoffice, Richmond, Cal.

High School Boys Open Baseball Season

This Year Promises to Be Greatest in History of Game—Richmond in the Running.

Sau Jose High School athletes have secured Cyril McGraw as coach again this year. McGraw is a top notcher and landed the prize eaters within one inning of capturing the championship of the Academic Athletic League, after cleaning up all the Santa Clara county teams, including Palo Alto, and even Stockton, who had won the laurels in the Southern sub-league of the A. A. L. McGraw is a former player of the Brooklyn Nationals and was a hard hitter and speedy fielder. He is one of the best coaches in the game. The practice game slated in San Francisco with the Lowells was cancelled owing to lack of team work in the San Jose squad. McGraw will select the playing team from 25 youngsters, all live ones. Here is a chance for Richmond highs to schedule some good games. San Jose is eager to remove Richmond's scalp. Can they do it?

SPORTS.

The National Baseball Commission reinstated Orvie Overall, the court of last resort rendering a decision Monday. It now remains to be seen whether the heavy California twirler can condition himself again for fast company in the majors. The arm that he threw out in Oakland two years ago may cause trouble.

Cy Parkin, the comedian and pitcher for the Oaks, has returned and will join the champions at their training grounds. Cy is one of the best on the coaching lines.

Leon Ketchell, the younger brother of Stanley Ketchell, 18 years of age, has the promise of making a champion welter. He has entered the boxing arena with six straight victories to his credit.

Jim Corbett, pugilist-actor, and ex-champion, was given a big reception Monday night by the San Francisco Olympic Club. He complimented the club members by admitting that the reception was the swellest of his career.

Richmond High School baseball team is starting off with a strong lineup. They promise to give some of the crack teams of this part of the state some trouble in the contest for the state pennant, which was contested so bitterly by San Jose and the San Francisco Missions last year. Richmond highs played a 4 to 4 tie with Oakland Wednesday. They play the Berkeley deaf mutes tomorrow.

Standard's Houn' Dog Kicked.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 14.—A permanent order ousting the Standard Oil Company from the state of Missouri was handed down by the state supreme court Wednesday.

Mayor J. Stitt Wilson will speak in the Auditorium in Los Angeles Sunday night, the subject chosen being "Jesus the Hero of the Common People." The Auditorium's seating capacity is 5000 and the seats have all been sold.

First Train Through Tunnel.
The rails have been laid through the big Oakland & Antioch tunnel and the first train passed through today with a big demonstration in connection with the event. Oakland's back country is now in touch with the bay cities and great development is expected.

May See Company.
H. H. Turley, who miraculously escaped in the subway accident Wednesday evening, by his auto turning turtle from butting into one of the steel uprights, may bring suit against the railroad company for not maintaining enough lights in the subway.

Richmond Industries Rapidly Multiplying

No Let Up to Inquiries For Factory Sites—Some of the "Men Behind."

Many men deserving of praise for public spirit and activity in building up a city are sometimes overlooked in the scramble and activity of this strenuous age of commercialism. Geo. S. Wall is one of the men who started Richmond, and who directly and by his own personal efforts was instrumental in securing two of the largest industries to locate here. Associated with him are men of broad and unselfish makeup, who are actively engaged in building up Richmond, inducing manufacturing industries to locate here, and making little noise about it.

W. H. Sanford, local manager of the New Richmond Land Co., is Mr. Wall's close second in progressiveness. He is a builder-up, a booster with something besides empty words back of it. He is now working on a woolen mill enterprise for Richmond. He will land it. That is a foregone conclusion. Wall and Sanford have a record for doing things. They started things in Richmond and are keeping them going.

City Briefs.

St. Valentine's Day.
The public schools of Richmond observed Lincoln's birthday in an appropriate manner.

Pythian Sisters entertained a card party and St. Valentine's social at Bank Hall last night.

Mrs. O. C. Stanley entertained the membership of the Richmond Club at her home yesterday afternoon.

R. J. Lipe, formerly a resident of Richmond, came over from San Francisco and visited old friends this week.

The schoolmates and friends of Miss Maurine Boone will be pleased to learn of her recovery from her late illness.

A San Francisco firm bought the Beckhaus stock. Mr. Beckhaus will remain in Richmond. He has not decided upon his plans.

A one story brick will be erected on Macdonald between 13th and 14th by H. Hoyt. Plans were filed with City Architect Ogborn.

Mrs. J. A. Culp of Portland, Oregon, left for her home Sunday night. She had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas G. Yonce.

Dr. C. R. Blake states that the smallpox scare is about over, and that the victims of the disease will soon be released from quarantine.

George Wilson of minstrel fame is making arrangements to put "The Mikado" on in Richmond under the auspices of the Richmond Lodge of Elks.

The new Washington school on Montana avenue will be formerly dedicated on February 22, Washington's birthday. Members of Richmond Post No. 1, and also United Spanish War Veterans, have been asked to take part in the ceremonies.

Rev. G. A. White delivered an address last night on the Brotherhood of Man at the Oakland Presbytery held at Newark. Mr. White is built on the "broad gauge plan," and therefore is popular and can entertain his hearers.

The Gusto Vesta society gave a whist party at Bank Hall Saturday. Beautiful prizes were awarded and refreshments were served. Miss Ida Hanson won the first ladies' prize and Hans Swanson won the first gentlemen's prize.

Miss Bessie Campbell entertained a pretty social affair last Saturday night at the Campbell home, Fifth and Nevin. There were present a score or more of Miss Bessie's intimate friends who spent a most enjoyable evening at whist, dancing and other entertaining features.

Albany Goes Dry By Big Majority

Advocates of Cleaner Town Carry Day in Richmond's Suburb.

Special to The Richmond Terminal.
ALBANY, Cal., Feb. 14.—Both sides of the "wet and dry" contest are combing the town for votes, many automobiles being utilized to give the women voters as well as the men a free ride to the polls.

The wets finished their campaign last night by a rally held in the auditorium of the schoolhouse. The principal speaker of the evening was A. S. Ruth of Olympia, Wash., his subject being "The Wyllie Local Option Law."

The dries held their last meeting Tuesday night, at which Hon. Stitt Wilson of Berkeley spoke for an hour to a large audience.

Polys to Give Hop.
East Shore Park will be the scene of a gay throng of young Polytechnic Business College students on the evening of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, when a dancing party will be entertained by the student body. The proceeds of the dance will be used in carrying out amusement features for the young folks who are fitting themselves for the business world.

Valuable Corner.

J. Halloran, railroad builder, the man who got in on the ground floor when he came to Richmond at the time Macdonald avenue lots were selling for a song, sold the northeast corner of Macdonald and 4th street this week to an Oakland syndicate. The property is 50x112 feet and it stated sold for $20,000. Halloran built the roadbed of the Santa Fe into Richmond, with the assistance of several hundred men, and purchased the lot of the Richmond Land Co. when prices were different from now.

Harbortage.

Harbortage, which fronts on the inner harbor, between 25th and 31st streets, is undoubtedly the choicest of waterfront properties. The Richmond Development Company own this property and are offering it on terms that will cause many skeptical persons to wish they had taken advantage of opportunities offered now.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

J. White, father of Rev. G. A. White, left for his home in Portland, Oregon, yesterday.

W. H. Sanford has plans drawn for a business block to be erected between 22nd and 23d street.

J. A. Peterson, the cigar dealer and The Terminal's neighbor, will move into his new quarters next week.

George Wall of the Richmond Land Co., has purchased the southwest corner of 22nd street and Macdonald avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley J. Shepard are enjoying themselves seeing the sights in London. Mrs. Shepard was formerly Miss Helen J. Gould.

Berkeley will try to vote bonds for $475,000 sewer improvements, $50 fire apparatus $125,000, and purchase playgrounds to cost $200,000. Total $800,000.

Not the Men.

Identification of the men, Pietro Casquale and Luigi Scalzo, having failed, Sheriff Veale gave them their liberty Wednesday. The rewards offered for information leading to the capture of the murderer of Bert Blanchard now total $850. It is believed by many who are acquainted with the typography of the country where Blanchard was killed that it will be impossible to secure evidence or a clew to the perpetrator of this terrible deed.

Knights of Pythias Plan Fine Building

Fifteen Thousand Dollars to Be Expended on Fifth Street Structure.

Six years ago Richmond Lodge No. 13, Knights of Pythias, planned to build themselves a castle hall in this city. They purchased two lots 50x100 feet on Fifth street near Macdonald avenue, but did not carry out their plans at that time. However, on October 31, 1912, the Knights of Pythias Hall Association was incorporated, with 25,000 shares at $1.00 each. A large portion of this stock has been sold, and the attractive temple on Fifth street soon to be erected will bear evidence of the enterprise and civic pride of the followers of Damon and Pythias.

The building will be ready for occupancy about the first of May. The ground floor is to be fitted up as an assembly hall 50x75, the income from which will net a handsome sum to the lodge, as the association has received applications from lodges for each night of the week, Sundays excepted.

The directors of the association are: Jas. C. Bly, president; F. Dunning, secretary; Jas. C. Bly, J. C. Werick, R. N. Fernald, L. Epstein and J. C. Cook, directors.

Pythian Sisters.

The Pythian Sisters' new lodge formally installed new officers Saturday night at Sequoia hall, the installation ceremonies being conducted by Mrs. Coar Language of Oakland. A drill team from Oakland was in attendance and assisted in the installation. Brilliant addresses were made by prominent bay city Pythians, and banqueting followed the installation. Officers installed were:

P. C., Mrs. A. Reordan; Chief, Mrs. K. McVickers; Senior, Mrs. F. H. Welch; Junior, Mrs. Devor; Manager, Mrs. Mary Gregory; Mistress of the Records, Miss Bessie Gregory; Mistress of the Finance, Miss Mary Lucas; Protector, Mary Meilun; Guard, Mrs. Hill.

A Close Call.

On Monday evening as P. J. Perieliera of San Pablo, accompanied by his wife and 12 year old daughter were crossing the S. P. railroad at 16th street, their horse stopped on the track and the occupants thrown from the track by a S. P. train. The occupants had a miraculous escape from serious injury, but were bruised and cut, and it will be some time before they are fully recovered from the effects of the collision. The horse escaped injury.

Typewriter Factory.

The new typewriter manufactory for Richmond is negotiating for land near the porcelain works in the northeastern part of the city. Inducements have been offered the new company to locate here, and if preliminary arrangements are a criterion, the subsidiary factory will be one in reality in the near future.

Berkeley's Inland Harbor.

Berkeley has asked the government for a federal survey of the proposed inland harbor. Col. Rees has reported favorably in regard to the project and Congressman J. R. Knowland has taken the matter up with Senator Perkins, the bill to be included as a senate amendment. When the bill comes back Mr. Knowland will take it up with the house conferees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The prize of $100 offered by Geo. S. Wall of the New Richmond Land Co. for the best 250 word writeup on "Richmond Harbor and Cutting boulevard" was won by Wilbur S. Younglove, the 22d street realty broker.

Public Library.

Richmond public library and branches circulated during January 3041 books. During January 256 new volumes, 194 by purchase and 62 by gift, were added to the library. Donations, 161 volumes.

Population Increasing.

Health Commissioner Blake in his statistics for January, reports a total of 21 births in Richmond—12 boys and 9 girls.

Extra Superior Judge May Not Materialize

Some Hesitancy in Endorsing the Proposition by State Senator Owens and Others.

Special to The Richmond Terminal.
MARTINEZ, Feb. 14.—The Standard is authority for the statement that Tom Johnston has his eye on the district attorneyship. Johnston's bill for an additional superior judge to relieve Judge Latimer from so much overtime does not meet with the endorsement expected in certain quarters owing to Latimer's modesty in asking for help. Senator Owens is also "inactive" in regard to the extra judgeship.

Around the Horn.

The world-touring steamer Cleveland which recently sailed from San Francisco for New York carried 468 passengers, among whom were three Berkeley residents, Dr. Martha Barnby, Miss Mary Barnby and Miss Hazel Sibley.

MEXICAN ARMY IN REVOLT MADERO FLEES FROM CAPITAL

Felix Diaz Heads Revolting Army and Controls Capital After Severe Fighting in Streets

Mexico City, Feb. 10, 1 a. m.—Felix Diaz, twenty-four hours ago a prisoner under life sentence for treason, is this (Monday) morning free, the dictator of Mexico, with the federal army at his back.

President Francisco Madero, after a day's fighting, in which 250 persons, including women and children, were slain, and 500 wounded, has fled from the capital, and his family has sought safety in the Japanese legation.

Felix Diaz, nephew of the former president, Porfirio Diaz, was aided in his coup d'etat by General Bernardo Reyes, who was killed early in the fighting.

Three Americans, two women and a man, are reported to have been killed. The American embassy was hit by stray bullets and tonight is guarded by twenty armed American citizens.

General Diaz has informed the diplomatic corps that he cannot guarantee the safety of foreign lives and property.

The Diaz coup d'etat is complete. Practically the entire army has gone over to him. His troops hold the artillery, the arsenals, the powder magazines, the public buildings and the cathedral.

The revolt of the army began Saturday night, when the cadets at the military school at Tlalpan, a suburb of the capital, marched to the prison, ten miles from the city, where Felix Diaz has been kept in confinement since January 28. The prison authorities released Diaz without resistance.

The cadets, led by Diaz, then proceeded to the Santiago military prison near the city, and released General Bernardo Reyes, the idol of the army, who had been incarcerated since last December.

To the army mutineers quickly came portions of the First cavalry. Twenty-fourth cavalry and Twentieth infantry. General Manuel Mondragon, retired, was in command, but he immediately turned over his authority to Generals Diaz and Reyes.

The mutiny of the army was practically complete at daylight, and at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning Generals Diaz and Reyes at the head of the army marched to the Zocalo, the great plaza in front of the national palace.

Mexico City, Feb. 10.—The protection will be given Americans or other foreigners now in Mexico City. Madero has refused to offer protection and Felix Diaz said last night:

"I have no authority to offer such protection before the United States recognizes my legitimacy."

"When I have been granted such recognition I will give full protection to all foreigners, for then it would be my duty as well as my pleasure."

San Diego, Feb. 10.—The armored cruiser South Dakota is under orders tonight to start for the Mexican coast tomorrow morning.

It will proceed first to La Paz on the Gulf of California. As the region around La Paz is a vast desert the cruiser is taking on board an enormous supply of water.

The war maneuvers in which the cruisers South Dakota and Colorado and several torpedo boats were to indulge this week have been called off.

It is almost certain that the Colorado will also leave for Mexican waters within a few hours. One of its officers was called from a theater in the evening by an order to join the ship at once.

The Colorado is under what is known in naval parlance as six-hour sailing orders.

Mexico City, Feb. 10.—A telephone message received just before midnight says that 1000 Zapatistas have passed the Country Club on their way to the capital. The news of their coming has caused a new outbreak of fear. An additional force of 250 rebels has also arrived.

Mexico City, Feb. 11.—A pitched battle was fought today among the skyscrapers and homes of one of the great cities of the world between adherents of President Francisco Madero and the revolutionary forces of General Felix Diaz. Cannon roared in the streets of the densely populated city and rifle bullets splattered against the walls that housed thousands of foreigners, as well as the countrymen of the combatants.

When darkness put an end to the battle after seven hours fighting, neither side seemed to have gained any marked advantage. Estimates of casualties run as high as 1000, although accurate information cannot be obtained at this time. The dead certainly will be counted by hundreds.

Three Americans are known to have suffered injuries by stray bullets. They are Lloyd Osborne, the author, who was shot in the thigh; Dr. R. H. McCrosson of Lincoln, Neb., and Mark Johnson, a negro of Madison, Ill.

CAPTAIN SCOTT AND PARTY PERISH DURING BLIZZARD NEAR SOUTH POLE

London, Feb. 11.—News reached the World last night that Captain Robert F. Scott, the Antarctic explorer, and an unknown number of his companions, perished in the Antarctic while on the return journey from the south pole.

They reached their goal on January 18, 1912, about a month after Captain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian, had planted the flag of his country there. They then turned back toward the bases they formed on their outward journey, but were overtaken, overwhelmed and destroyed by a blizzard. The news of the death of the explorer was brought to civilization by the captain of the Terra Nova, the vessel which had taken Scott's expedition to the south and which had gone again to bring them back after the accomplishment of their task. A search expedition recovered the bodies and records of the party.

At a meeting of the Royal Geographical Society tonight announcement was made of the disaster which has overtaken Captain Robert F. Scott's Antarctic expedition, resulting in the death of Captain Scott, Dr. E. A. Wilson, Lieutenant H. R. Bowers, Captain L. F. Gates and Petty Officer E. Evans.

MRS. CLEVELAND AND PROF. PRESTON WED

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 10.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland and Professor Thomas Jex Preston Jr. were married at 10:30 o'clock this morning by President John Grier Hibben of Princeton University.

No preliminary announcement had been made and the utmost simplicity was observed at the ceremony.

Because of the recent illness of Mrs. Preston the wedding was private, the other guests in addition to the members of the two immediate families being President and Mrs. Hibben, Miss Elizabeth Hibben and Andrew F. West, dean of Princeton's graduate school.

The bride wore a simple white silk gown and carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses.

The wedding breakfast was served at Prospect immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jex Preston will spend the remainder of the winter in Florida.

No announcement cards were sent.

LONG WAIT FOR CASTRO; APPEALS WILL HOLD HIM

New York.—No matter what decision the federal district court makes in the case of Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Venezuela, seeking to enter this country, Castro will remain either in New York or at Ellis Island for some time to come—possibly as long as a year," according to Harold A. Content, his lawyer. If the Venezuelan loses, he will appeal; if the government loses, its attorneys will appeal.

Industries of Four Counties Set Forth in Blue Book Articles

Sacramento—From a leader in gold to a leader in golden fruit is the unusual record made by Placer county, which, according to figures compiled by Secretary of State Jordan for publication in the state Blue Book, ranks second among the fifty-eight counties of California in annual peach and nut production, fifth in the number of bearing fruit trees, sixth in fruit product, and sixth in plum and prune product.

This county was long famed as a miners center. It is estimated that its mineral production, since the discovery of gold in Auburn on May 18, 1849, has amounted to $75,000,000.

But in recent years attention has turned from the rich mineral deposits to the fertile mountain, foothill and valley lands. As a result, Secretary Jordan comments, the county in 1910 began to assume supremacy as a fruit growing section.

By way of agricultural development, Jordan relates that the value of all farm property in 1910 was $10,234,101. This shows an increase in ten years of $3,685,340, or 56.3 per cent, and represents 248,080 acres in farms from a total land area of 892,800 acres.

TEHAMA COUNTY GREATEST IN SHEEP AND GOATS

Tehama county, where within the last three years the breaking up of vast land holdings into small farms has brought about a wonderful increase in prosperity, and the county that in 1910 won in open competition with the other counties of the state the first prize for the best horticultural, agricultural and industrial exhibit at the annual state fair, leads the other counties in the number of sheep and goats owned, according to comparative figures that have been compiled by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan for the State Blue Book.

Jordan finds these figures are: Sheep 297,736, and goats 28,473. The total number of domestic animals, cattle, horses, mules, hogs, sheep and goats amounted to 374,000, and they had a value of $2,119,800. The possibilities of this county are made fully apparent in the general article in the Blue Book. Jordan calls attention to the fact that this county, twice the size of the state of Delaware, has a most diversified surface, ranging from the rich alluvial plain along the river to the lofty crests of distant mountains. The Sacramento river runs through the county from north to south. The county is credited with holding the key to the irrigation of the great central valley—the Sacramento valley and in this county is the site of the proposed storage and diversion dam in a vast system being planned by reclamation engineers, and one of the most colossal designed to control flood waters ever undertaken by the government.

VENTURA COUNTY PROSPERS; BEAN OUTPUT LEADS WORLD

Sacramento—Ventura county, with its fifty miles of sea frontage, picturesquely located cities and towns, and a section of the state that is rapidly developing its diversified natural advantages, is the leading county among the fifty-eight of the state in the annual production of dry and edible beans and first in honey production, according to figures that have been compiled by Secretary of State Frank Jordan for publication in the State Blue Book. Ventura county ranks second in sugar beet production, second in apricot production, third in walnut production and sixth in the value of all crops. The county is credited with containing the greatest lima bean section in the world, having an annual production of 8,000,000 pounds.

YUBA LEADS STATE IN GOLD PRODUCTION

Sacramento—Yuba county, lying partly in rich and extensive valleys and partly on the foothills and lower slopes of the Sierras—a country that is rapidly coming to the fore in agricultural and fruit growing—stands a leader among the fifty-eight counties of the state in annual gold production, according to figures that have been compiled by Secretary of State Frank Jordan for the State Blue Book. The gold output for Yuba for 1910 was $3,204,273.

Other figures compiled by Jordan show that, with an area of only 408,108 acres in farms in 1910, and the value of all farm property amounted to $1,952,298 in ten years of 41.7 per cent.

Digest of Bills Prepared By State Secretary

Sacramento—A booklet containing a digest of each of the nearly 4000 bills introduced in the legislature during the past thirty days will be upon the desk of every member of both houses when the senate and assembly reconvene March 10, if plans laid by Secretary of State Jordan do not go awry. Part of his office force has been set to work classifying and studying the bills, which are to be segregated into about thirty classes, and as fast as one classification is completed it will be given out for publication. Copies of the completed pamphlet will be available for general distribution.

Some of the more important classifications will be taxation, appropriation, fish and game, labor, revision of civil and criminal code and procedure, creation of new commissions, normal schools, the University of California, anti-alien land ownership and Asiatic exclusion, public morals, reclamation and drainage, and harbor legislation. A great sigh of relief went up from the few legislators still in town when they heard of Secretary Jordan's plans. Some who had counted the bills over on their fingers already had estimated that even if they perused 100 bills a day during the thirty-day recess they would have to leave 1000 unread if they answered the roll call on March 10.

More proposed legislation dealing with fish and game has been introduced at the present session of the legislature than any other subject, excepting, perhaps, amendments to the civil, penal and civil procedure codes.

State Printer Richardson announced it would be fully a week before he could complete the printing of all bills, amendments and resolutions. The bills will be sent out by the mailing rooms of either house as they are returned from the printer.

The bill filing and mailing rooms are the busiest places in the capital now. A full corps of assistants are working long hours sending out bills to libraries, chambers of commerce and other places designated. In addition they are preparing complete files of bills to send to the members.

Advance of Women In Public School Administration

How women have advanced from the educational ranks to the highest administrative positions in the public schools is interestingly revealed in figures just compiled by the United States Bureau of Education. Four states—Colorado, Idaho, Washington and Wyoming have women at the head of their state school systems, and there are now 495 women county superintendents in the United States, nearly double the number of ten years ago.

In some states women appear to have almost a monopoly of the higher positions in the public school system. Wyoming has a state superintendent; the deputy state superintendent is a woman, and of the fourteen counties of the state all but one are directed educationally by women. In Montana, where there are thirty counties, only one man is reported as holding the position of county superintendent.

Together with the advancement of women in the administrative branch of education has come a demand for women on local school boards, and this demand has been recognized in many communities. The following cities of 100,000 population or over report one or more women on the school board: New York, Chicago, Cleveland, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Washington, Indianapolis, Rochester, St. Paul, Denver, Columbus, Worcester, Grand Rapids, Cambridge and Fall River. Numerous smaller municipalities have adopted the idea.

PRESIDENT URGES AID TO OPEN UP ALASKA

Washington—Alaska's vast resources can be best brought within reach of the world, in the opinion of President Taft, by the construction, with government assistance, of two railway lines from the Alaskan coast to the interior, ownership of which shall be vested in the government, but which shall be operated by private parties under lease.

In a special message transmitting to congress the report of the Alaskan railway commission, the president strongly urged legislation along these lines, asking that the government either guarantee the principal and interest of bonds necessary to build the roads, or construct them.

"I am very much opposed to government operation, but I believe that government ownership with private operation under lease is the proper solution," wrote the president.

"One road recommended by the commission would connect Cordova with Fairbanks, by way of Chitina; the other would link Seward and Iditarod. The first would open up the Behring river coal field; the other the Matanuska field. The two roads would have a total mileage, with branches, of 733 miles and would cost about $35,000,000.

WOMAN SICK FOURTEEN YEARS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.: "I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sarsaparilla. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 465 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by our mail, and held in strict confidence.

Nightmare. Nightmare is a peculiar form of bad dreams considered worthy of special name, being usually accompanied by a sense of extreme uneasiness or discomfort, like a weight on the chest or stomach, with imagined impossibility of motion or speech and other distressing feelings. It is due to disturbed circulation in the chest or in the brain, which, in turn, is due to imprudent eating of late or heavy suppers.

How to Remove Ink Stains. The following is taken from a page of practical household suggestions published in the Woman's Home Companion. "A leaking fountain-pen in the pocket caused an ink-spot on a light wool coat. I applied alcohol by degrees, using only enough to moisten the spot, then rubbing the cloth between my hands as though washing it. Soon the spot had entirely disappeared, leaving no trace of the ink."

SPORTS

BILLIARDS

The Japs are proud of Yamada, but have some difficulty expressing their emotions on the subject in English. Brooklyn lost to Boston in a National billiard league three-cushion match at Boston. Ammidon of Boston made 50, with a high run of 6, and an average of 43. Otis of Brooklyn made 48, with a high run of 4 and average of 42.

AQUATIC

That the University of California is getting ready to send crews to the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson is believed from a visit to Ithaca of Arthur Eaton, captain of the 1913 varsity eight-oared shell of that university.

Righting is one of the most popular sports in Australia, and the enthusiasm has spread to women, as shown by the following from the Sydney Referee: "A deposit of $25 has been forwarded to the Referee by Eddie Larsen on behalf of Miss Alma Larsen (Broadwater, Richmond river), to row Miss Fern Kemp for the Australian women's sculling championship (best—and best boats) for $250 a side. The challenger asks for $50 expenses if the race is rowed on the Parramatta river."

TENNIS

Jay Gould, the national champion court tennis player, will defend his title in the championship tourney at Boston next April.

Mrs. Larcombe, the English tennis champion, won the women's singles in the Paris tennis tournament. She defeated Mlle. Broquedis, one of the winners in the Olympic games.

"Vary" is a word constantly found in Raymond Little's article on tennis play in the December Outing. The great player says that versatility is the first essential of the tennis expert.

For the first time since 1892 the name of Larned does not appear in the front ranks of the tennis rating. This year the great player is only listed in an addenda, of whom it is said that not sufficient data was furnished the committee.

Doherty, reckoned by many the greatest tennis player that ever lived, says that the game is all in the legs. Larned held the title seven years on strength alone, and was displaced finally by Maurice McLaughlin, who possesses powerful hip muscles.

FOOTBALL

Change of the system in handling athletics at the University of Illinois is seen by followers of college sports in the signing of Coach Robert Zuppke of Oak Park for three years for football coach.

Having retired from the football season with laurels, Storer, the speedy Harvard tackle, who swooped down on Wheeler's fumbled punt in the recent Yale game and then flashed across the goal line for the first touchdown Harvard had scored on Yale for eleven years, is to add new honors to his list. Harvard is to revive its college hymnal, and Storer has been selected to lead the literary "team" in that difficult work.

Allen E. McBean, manager of athletics, announces receipts from the University of Minnesota's football games this season. Receipts from other games were: South Dakota, $1,638; Ames, $2,073.50; Nebraska, $5,891.70; Iowa, $3,667.55; Illinois, $6,590.80; Chicago, approximately, $14,000.

PUGILISM

Battling Miner, a Memphis boy, took the place of Young Saylor of Indianapolis, who failed to appear for his fight with Joe Sherman of Baltimore, at Memphis, and the referee stopped the fight in the seventh round to save Miner from a knockout. Miner had been floored twice, and his face was beaten to a pulp when the referee stopped the affair.

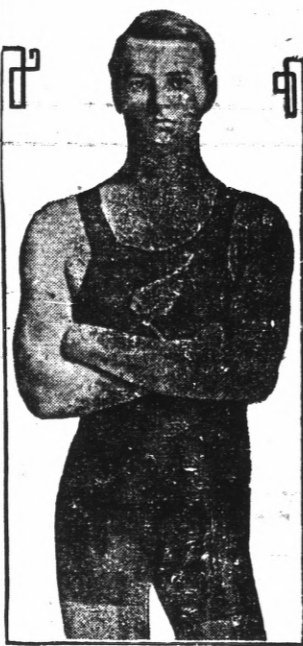

Bob McAllister of the Olympic club of San Francisco, winner of the Pacific coast middle-weight and heavy-weight boxing championships at Los Angeles, recently, is declared to be the greatest amateur boxer that has been developed since Jim Corbett stepped from the amateur ranks of the Olympic club in order to win the world's heavy-weight title. McAllister weighs 158 pounds.

Fred Welsh, the English fighter, successfully defended his title of lightweight champion of England against Hugh McKeegan, the Australian lightweight champion at London. The contest was fought before the National Sporting club, and it went the 20 rounds. Welsh won the decision on points. Neither fighter seemed to possess a punch that could possibly cause a knockout.

Billy Papke, middleweight champion of France and claimant of the world's title, is signed to meet Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh, Pa., before the Wonderland club of Paris, on the night of March 5.

Indications that the Frawley boxing law of New York state is attracting outside attention came with the announcement by the state athletic commission that no less than six requests have been received from other states for copies of the law. The requests were from Illinois, Minnesota, Montana, Ohio, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

American Champion Tank Swimmer May Be Matched to Race Duke Kahanamoku of Hawaii, the Olympic 100-Meter Champion and Record Holder.

SWIMMING

Australia has many outdoor swimming pools constructed by means of breakwaters. The municipal bath at Sydney, New South Wales, is splendidly arranged for swimmers, and also accommodates ten thousand spectators.

C. M. Daniels has consented to stage a 100-yard swimming match with Duke Kahanamoku, the Hawaiian, who distinguished himself at the Stockholm Olympiad. The match will undoubtedly be the biggest water event of America this season.

WRESTLING

Billy Lynn contends he is the right full holder of the American featherweight wrestling title.

Cazeau, a French wrestler at the mixed style, is coming back for more trouble. Cazeau believes in hitting in the clinches.

Zbyszko defeated Lundin in two straight falls in a wrestling match at Detroit. Dr. Rickson from Weber, also in straight fall.

Mahmoud and his Bulgarian associates have changed the map of Europe and McCarthy has slightly altered the map of Jim Flynn.

Jim Corbett favors decisions in boxing, something Emil Klank advocates for wrestling. A rule requiring a decision in such matches would eliminate much stalling, they think.

At Battle Creek, Mich., Yankee Rogers of Rochester, N. Y., was eliminated from the list of heavyweight wrestling championship contenders, when Stanislaus Zbyszko threw him in straight falls of twenty-nine and eleven minutes.

BASEBALL

The Phillies have secured waivers on Schultz, the old Penn star, and will ship him back to the International. Cleveland proposes to recall Fred Falkenberg, who performed wonderfully with the Toledo Mud Hens in the A. A. last season.

Buffalo wants Arthur Devlin, the veteran, but George Stallings forecasts his best season for the old Giant and refused to part with him.

Evers hopes to trade Sheppard and Leach for a pitcher. But he hasn't received any offers of Mathewson, Marquard, Johnson or Walsh yet.

"There's no use claiming first place for Detroit next season," says Hugh Jennings. "If the Tigers finish in fourth place we shall feel that we have done well."

There will be another Rixey in the Virginia battery this season, this being Bill Eppa's younger brother, Eppa Rixey is in the law school, but of course, ineligible.

Miller Huggins refuses to part with the coveted Slim Sallee to Chicago for Sheppard, or for that matter with any other member of his pitching staff. He has offered Murphy $4,000 for Jimmy.

Ray Morgan, the Nationals' second sacker, who was replaced for a short while last season by Laporte, is in line for his old job next spring. He was signed up at an increased salary last season.

This may put a quietus on the story that Mack will send Schang to the Yanks for $3,000. "Drafting a man at a pretty low price and then selling him at a profit," says Connie himself, "is a pretty cheap business. Besides, I need Schang myself."

Francis C. Richter, the veteran sporting writer, strikes a sound note of warning in deploring the extensive building of million dollar plants. out the ups and downs of the national game in 20 years and says a slump in public interest is bound to come.

Evers isn't worried about a successor to Joe Tinker. He says Al Bridwell will fill the job. Red Corridon is not looked to star exceptionally, as conflicting reports have been received as to his ability. But Bridwell has assured Evers he is in the best of form.

Miller Huggins will offer a job as scout to Henrie Peitz, some time manager of Louisville, to who Walter Salm gives credit for the last flag the Colonials won.

Damon Runyon, whose versatile pen has illumined the New York American's sporting page for some seasons, rises to remark that when Frank Chance is presented with a royal horseshoe on the occasion of his debut in New York by his "New York friends and admirers," those same will be the parties that used to beat him with pop bottles at the Polo grounds.

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY

Grace's Long List of Fictitious Admirers Had Unfortunate Results for Her.

"No wonder I feel so grouchy!" pouted Grace, as she shut the book she was reading with a slam. "Every time that phone rings I think it will be Edward. He promised to call me up the next day, and today is Saturday. Six days have passed, and not a word. It is impossible that he could be so busy. Surely, he could find some time to call me up. How foolish of me to believe all the nice nothing he told me Monday evening, but he spoke so sincerely. If that phone rings again, and it is some dear girl telling me of her many engagements, I will bang the receiver. I am getting tired of listening to other people's good times, and acting enthusiastic when I would like to say, 'I don't care.' And sis is not at home today to disturb me. Generally, she seats herself right next to me, and takes in every word of it. He is not in sight, she is at the extension, and have to have each word repeated until the pleasure is all gone."

Just then Grace bounced up. The phone, the doorbell—which should she answer first? She ran to the phone.

"Hello! Oh, Ed, I am so glad to hear from you. Just a moment, Ed, the doorbell is ringing."

"Hello, sis, be quiet. I am telephoning. I don't care whom you met. Tell me after. Go to your room and stay there."

In a second she was back at the phone.

"Hello, Ed! Yes, isn't the door a nuisance? I really have been so busy I didn't get time to think of any phone messages. It certainly don't seem nearly a week since—Oh, just a moment, Ed."

"Sis, be still. I don't know where your white veil is. You make so much noise I don't know what I am saying to Ed. I'll look for it after a while. Now hang just for five minutes."

"Hello, Ed! I'm back again. It was the doorbell again. A box of sweet peas for me. Yes, just lovely. Wonderful weather? I should say! Automobiling? Fine weather for that, Oh, Ed, just a moment—that bell again—"

"Now, sis, just stop calling me. I don't keep track of your clothes. I can't help it if all your silk stockings are ripped. You should darn them. Then wear a cotton pair—be still. I mean it! What will I tell Ed this time? Can't tell him it is you. He will think you have no bringing up—a reflection on our family. I'll buy you a new pair if you promise not to talk—now remember."

"Hello, hello, Ed. Are you still there? You must excuse me for interrupting you so often, but I just got a box of candy. Yes, candy. Delicious! I should say. Well, you know it takes some time to sign for it—and then—what—popular did you say? Oh, now I can't understand you. Ed, my sister, did you say? With you? Why, of course, she will be glad to go, I know. You say I have too many other admirers? Oh, yes, I know I will enjoy the candy and flowers. Just a moment, and I'll call sis to the phone."

Grace went to her sister's room and told her she was wanted at the phone.

"But let me tell you," she continued, "you can go riding with Ed under one condition, and that is that you do not tell him that I did not get the candy and flowers."

Sis ran to the phone enthusiastically, and while she was saying "I'll be glad to," Grace walked in the library, gazing upon an old motto which read: "Honesty is the best Policy."—New York Press.

Not a Lover of the Country. Flavie Rankin is one of these city chaps that can't see the country at all. He says he tried living in the rural districts once and never again for him. Tommy Scott, the clear man, spent his vacation in the country this summer and came back enthusiastic about it. He met Rankin on the street shortly after he returned.

"Hello, Flavie!" he shouted. "Had your vacation yet?"

"Yes—a month ago."

"No, I didn't go to the country. But I got the same results right home. I told the woman to stop coming, bought a lot of stale vegetables, took the springs out of my bed, had the daily papers delivered two days late, took the screens out and set a kerosene lamp in the window and spent each morning in the back yard without my hat until my nose peeled. That's why I look as if I'd been in the country."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Life of a Drop of Water. A German professor named Meinardus has amused himself with calculating how long a drop of water stays in the ocean before it is evaporated, and how soon it returns to the sea. Calculating—he does not say how—the total evaporation from the surface of the ocean and estimating the total volume of water in the oceans, a drop of water entering the ocean will stay there 3,460 years, provided it awaits its turn to be evaporated. However, the professor admits that the surface water stands a good chance of getting ahead of its turn. The average stay out of the ocean is only twelve days before it has fallen back again to the sea.

Disappointed. "Won't you come in a little while?" she urged.

"Have you any mistletoes fastened to the chandelier?" he asked.

"You ought not to ask me such an embarrassing question."

"Well, if you won't tell me I think I'll be going along. I don't see why you consider the question embarrassing."

"I thought," she said, slamming the door in his face, "you might at least have had curiosity enough to want to come in and see for yourself."

Possible For You.

Electric lighting gives less trouble than any illumination. It does not soil walls and ceilings.
You save in decorating costs. You can use as little as you want, or as much—from two candle power up. House wiring and fixtures are a sound investment—not an expense. Let us show you.

WOMEN CLUBS ACTIVE.
The women clubs of the country promise to work out some great reforms in the next few years, not only the people's improvement in their way of living, but in that all-important question, the high cost of living. They claim that the exorbitant prices charged for food products are not due exclusively to the middlemen. There are other causes. The fancy labels, packages and boxes of artistic designs along with short weight, is all generously paid for by the consumer. The women are organizing in the large eastern cities and by using the most effective weapon, the boycott, propose to eliminate the "trimming process" that meat and fish are subjected to before reaching the consumer. The housewife claims that she is being robbed when purchasing a 5-lb fish. One-half of the fish is trimmed away before leaving the block, yet she must pay for five pounds just the same. This trimming process applies to meats as well, and it takes a woman who usually superintends the culinary department of the home to lay aside all the "cheap vanity" in the purchase of food products and protest against the "trimming" process all along the line. It is just as unfair to remove part of the contents of an egg and charge at the rate of 60 cents per dozen, as it is to trim a 5-lb roast down to 3 pounds and charge the customer for the original weight of 5 pounds.
The women of the country are to be commended in taking up these reforms. It remains for them to take the initiative, as the vanity of man is too great—he is afraid of being called a "cheap skate," and would rather stand for the trimming than meekly protest, apologetically remarking that "everybody's doing it," and therefore the holdup system is legitimate.

FROST PROBLEM.
The damage in all sections of the state from frost during the January freeze was large, and while in some sections a large percentage of the fruit had been picked, conditions were generally severe. The one great lesson is the need of improved heaters and vaporizers. The frost problem in California, for citrus and deciduous fruits will soon be settled and the grower will be relieved from fear.
Fifty-four subdivisions were made in land in California in January.
Approximately $26,000,000 was spent by California for education during 1912.
Secretary of state reports 1748 new auto vehicle registrations for the month of December.
Contracts for work on the exposition site amount to $3,000,000.
Work on the great machinery hall started this month.
It is time California was getting awake to its resources. We can manufacture anything here. Why send to the Atlantic coast for articles we can produce here at home
"less the freight?"
The new paper dollar, the plates for which Secretary MacVeagh has ordered printed, will not be in circulation before 1914. The new currency will be two-thirds the size of the dollar bill now in circulation.
San Francisco is going to build their hall out of Indiana limestone.
California has the best building material of any state in the union, but home industries are not being considered by the city hall designers.
Col. George W. Goethals made public the other day the promise that ocean-going ships will pass through the Panama Canal before the end of 1913, and that the locks at Gatun will be completed by June.
The San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose and Terminal railway has let the contract for the construction of the road to San Jose, including the commencement work on the immense union ferry building on the Oakland side of the bay.

Contra Costa has one of the finest county buildings in the state. It is not only an imposing structure, but conveniently arranged in all its appointments. The officers who serve the county are without exception men of integrity and efficient, giving value received for their services.

Bonds Sold at $243 Premium.
Richmond's municipal improvement bonds, first issue of 1912, were sold to E. H. Rollins & Son of San Francisco; their bid being $300,243, the figures $243 representing premium on the $300,000 issue. In accepting the offer of Rollins & Son, the buyers, the motion to accept was made by Councilman Pollett, seconded by Councilman Ludwig, at last Monday night's meeting of the city officials.

Something Worth the Price.
The Terminal is offering a premium with a year's subscription ($2.00 in advance) that beats them all. It is a beautifully dressed and expensive doll for your little girl, alone worth the subscription price. Or, you can choose a razor-steel pocket knife, elegantly finished, inlaid handle, with your photo, name and address artistically inserted. Call at 618 Macdonald and see sample. You will take one, sure.

The Right Kind of Neat Job Printing

THERE are few stationery stores in the west that have a complete job printing establishment in connection with this line, who can handle any kind of printing that enters into the stationery department. Artistic letterheads printed in colors, envelopes with your business card printed in the corner, cards for calling, cards for business, neatly designed by men who have had the experience in the larger printing establishments of the country and know how to please the most fastidious. Besides the printing and stationery departments, the Richmond Terminal, the oldest newspaper in Richmond is located here, all under one roof.
